

Postgraduate Studies

Presentation

The University of Granada offers different Postgraduate studies programs, both Masters and Doctorate.

The line-up of the European Higher Education and Research Area and its integration into Spanish universities, has changed many aspects of the Spanish university structure.

Our academic offer has been in this way enriched with new Master's Degrees, Doctorate Programs and UGR's Postgraduate studies, made up of studies that had already been adapted to the European model. The University of Granada offers different training programs and possibilities:

- Official Master's Degree
- UGR's Postgraduate studies
- Doctorate

You can find further information about these programs in <http://escuelaposgrado.ugr.es>.
