Write AT LEAST 400 WORDS on ONE of the following.

1. You are going to speak in a school debate on the motion 'Teamwork is essential in all aspects of school life'. Decide whether you are for or against the subject, and write the text of your speech.
 2. Compare two works you are familiar with in terms of their settings, and discuss how these relate to the text as a whole.
 3. A new hotel is being built in your area, as part of a larger development project. This hotel will be located next to a bird sanctuary. Permission has been granted by the City Council. You are generally in favour of the project, but have a number of concerns about potential problems. Write a letter to the head of the City Council stating your views.
 4. The concept of 'political correctness' is found in all aspects of life. Authors have even rewritten traditional stories to remove elements that offend readers because they indicate a sexist, racist, or religious bias. Choose all, or part of, a story that you know well, and rewrite it in a politically correct version. You do not need to refer to the original text in any way.
 5. You have been asked to write the text for an advertisement about one of the popular tourist sites in your area. This advertisement will appear on the local tourist office web site. Write this text.
 6. 'Social Inequality' is the theme of a week-long exhibition to be presented by your class, and to which parents and friends of the school have been invited. Prepare an informative handout to present different aspects of a problem that is well-known in your area.
