TEACHING PRACTICE
FOR LANGUAGE TEACHERS

Daniel Madrid
Stephen Hughes

GRANADA
GRUPO EDITORIAL UNIVERSITARIO
2006
http://www.editorial-geu.com
TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

PART I: THE THEORY OF SCHOOL-BASED PRACTICE

1. THE PRACTICAL COMPONENT OF INITIAL TEACHER TRAINING
   1.1. The teacher and practical knowledge

2. GENERAL OBJECTIVES OF TEACHING PRACTICE

3. TEACHING PRACTICE AND PROFESSIONAL SOCIALISATION

4. TEACHING PRACTICE AND PROFESSIONAL LEARNING
   4.1. Theoretical framework for cyclical supervision
      4.1.1. Learning through discovery
      4.1.2. Acquisition of practical and professional skills
      4.1.3. Experiential learning
      4.1.4. Interpersonal theories
         4.1.4.1. Roger’s learning model
         4.1.4.2. Egan’s helping model

5. TUTOR INTERVENTION AND SUPERVISION
   5.1. The relationship between the tutor and the student teacher
      5.1.1. Directive intervention
      5.1.2. Open intervention
      5.1.3. Non-directive intervention
      5.1.4. Clinical supervision
      5.1.5. Intervention aimed at professional development

6. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT THROUGH SCHOOL-BASED EXPERIENCE
   6.1. Teaching as a profession
   6.2. Awareness of teacher and learner characteristics
   6.3. Macro-strategies in language teaching

7. TEACHING PRACTICE AND CLASSROOM RESEARCH

PART II – THE INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK

8. THE SCHOOL-BASED EXPERIENCE IN INITIAL TEACHER TRAINING
   8.1. The meaning of school-based experience in the context of new study plans.
   8.2. Fundamental principles of the school-based experience
   8.3. Structure and design
   8.4. Organisation of school-based teaching practice

9. THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK AND FUTURE TRENDS
   9.1. The legal framework of school-based practice in Spain
   9.2. Possible future trends in teacher education in Europe

10. SCHOOL-BASED EXPERIENCE FOR MODERN LANGUAGE TEACHERS
    10.1. The objectives of the school-based experience
    10.2. Contents
    10.3. Observation and analysis of teaching practice in the school
    10.4. The teaching stage
    10.5. Teacher training seminars
    10.6. Classroom research practices
       10.6.1. Models for the analysis of the FL class
       10.6.2. A proposed model for classroom analysis
          10.6.2.1. Quantitative analysis
          10.6.2.2. Qualitative analysis
       10.6.3. Kumaravadivelu’s framework for critical classroom observation
          10.6.3.1. Framework for class observation
10.6.3.2. Observation stages
10.6.4. Case studies
10.6.5. Research projects
  10.6.5.1. Model for self-analysis in teaching

11. THE STUDENT TEACHER'S REPORT ON THE SCHOOL-BASED EXPERIENCE
11.1. Brief description of the material elements of the school
11.2. Revision and summary of the School Curricular Project (Proyecto Curricular de Centro)
11.3. Aspects related to teachers and teaching in the classroom
11.4. The teacher’s diary
11.5. Length of the report
11.6. Assessment of school-based teaching
11.7. Teaching practice seminars

12. THE EFFECT OF SCHOOL-BASED PRACTICE ON THE BEHAVIOUR OF STUDENT TEACHERS
12.1 The thoughts and actions of student teachers during the practice stage
12.2 Changes in teaching behaviour
12.3 Implications for teacher-trainers

13. STUDENT TEACHER PERCEPTIONS TOWARDS SCHOOL-BASED EXPERIENCES

14. CONCLUDING REMARKS

15. BIBLIOGRAPHY

16. APPENDICES