

GRANSLAVIC2014 (JUNE 4-6, 2014)

4TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 'ANDALUSIAN SYMPOSIA ON SLAVIC STUDIES'

Book "Trends in Slavic Studies" (Editorial URSS)

Deadline for full paper submissions: June 30th, 2014.

Guidelines:

The manuscripts submitted to "Trends in Slavic Studies" (Editorial URSS) must be written in English, Spanish or any Slavic language and must not be under review for publication by another journal, accepted and/or published elsewhere. Authors whose native language is not the language of the contribution should have their manuscripts read by a qualified native speaker before submission. Contributions should be sent by email in a Microsoft Word (.doc) format to granslavic2014 (at) gmail (dot) com. The name of the attached file and the email subject should be "author's surname-article" (e.g.: wilson-article.doc).

Length

The length of articles should be between 3,500 and 6,000 words, including abstract, notes and references. An article exceeding the length limit will be returned to the author.

Style

The font should be 12 pt Times New Roman. Only the left hand margin should be justified. Text in bold should be avoided, except in the title and subdivisions of the text. Use only double quotation marks, with the exception of translations, when single quotation marks should be used. Please do not insert line breaks in the text or special spacing for formatting. The paragraph break should be indicated by an extra line space rather than an indentation at the beginning of a paragraph.

Article title

The title must be appeared in the language of the contribution, following by a translated version in English. The font should be 12pt Times New Roman bold.

Author's full name

The author's full name should appear after the title in bold, followed by the affiliation, and e-mail address. The font should be 12pt Times New Roman.

Abstract

An abstract of about 150 words must be submitted in English. Reference to the literature should not appear in the abstract. The font in the abstract should be 10pt Times New Roman.

Keywords

Five keywords must be included in English. The font in the keywords should be 10pt Times New Roman.

Notes

Endnotes are not allowed. Footnotes should be kept to an absolute minimum and be as brief as possible. They should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numbers and indicated in the text by a raised number before any punctuation marks. The font in the endnotes should be 10pt Times New Roman. Please avoid figures, diagrams and tables in footnotes.

Acknowledgements

Acknowledgements should be presented under a separate heading at the end of the article, before the References.

Figures and diagrams

Figures and diagrams should be included in the text in the position where they are to appear only in image format (jpg, gif, png).

Citations in the text

The citations within the text should provide the author's name, the year of publication of the paper or book, and, if necessary, the page references, e.g.: "Wierzbicka (1999: 25) discusses..."; "Wierzbicka (1999) have reported that..."; "... (Wierzbicka, 1999: 25)".

References

Please list all works in the References that have been cited in the text. Do not list works that have not been cited. Citation of a reference as "in press" or "forthcoming" implies that the item has been accepted for publication. The font should be 12 pt Times New Roman.

References should follow the style used by the American Psychological Association (APA, 6th edition).

Timing and contact information

The review and editorial process may take around 3 months.

Notification of the result of review is sent via e-mail. If corrections are proposed by the reviewers, the author should send to the editors the article with all the corrections within 7 days.

Submission declaration

Authors should obtain permission for any copyrighted material used in the submission. Submission of an article implies that the work described has not been published previously, and that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that its publication is approved by all authors and tacitly or explicitly by the responsible authorities where the work was carried out.
