

STRATEGY GROUP: Social
STRATEGY SET: Cooperating with others
STRATEGY: Cooperating with more proficient users of the new language

In reading, students often need to cooperate with proficient language users. This frequently happens when language learners encounter proficient language users on the job, in the classroom, or on a trip.

Sean needs to get help from Jean-Louis in order to understand some highly technical written instructions while on the job. Belinda cooperates with Germans, who help her understand the German tour book.
