

Mediterranean Summer School

The Mediterranean Summer School has a long and well-established background in offering short-term courses in a variety of disciplines and knowledge areas (Health Sciences, Experimental Sciences, Social Sciences, Economics, Law and Humanities, Sports Sciences). These courses are mainly taught in the picturesque coastal towns of Almuñecar and Motril, and in the North African city of Ceuta, as well as in Guadix, Huéscar, Montefrío, and the Sierra Nevada.
