University news & events

The sign-up period for the UGR's Entrepreneurial Route for Researchers in Training is now open. Organised by the Directorate for Entrepreneurship (UGRemprendedora), this programme offers free workshops that will run on the 2, 3, 9, 10, 16 and 17 March 2020.

This UGR programme is open to both doctoral students and non-permanent research staff in training at the UGR. It aims to provide participants with a general overview of entrepreneurial activities, offering them basic knowledge and resources to help them set up a company.

Six work sessions will take place in three phases:

- Phase 1: A basic guide to entrepreneurship (2 March 2020, 10 am – 2 pm)
- Phase 2: Generating ideas and business models (3 and 9 March 2020, 10 am – 2 pm)
- Phase 3: Tools for setting up a company (10, 16 and 17 March 2020, 10 am – 2 pm)

Participants who attend 100% of the sessions and complete the programme activities will obtain a certificate of participation.

You can sign up through the Directorate for Entrepreneurship (UGRemprendedora) platform <https://e-ugremprendedora.ugr.es/> until 25 February 2020.
