

Madrid, D., C. Pérez, C. J. Muros, y A. Cordovilla (1998): Education through English. Granada: Grupo Editorial Universitario (88 pags.) Dep. Legal: Gr-1183-98, ISBN: 84-89908-58-3.

CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION	6
UNIT 1: EDUCATION
1.1. THE WORLD OF EDUCATION
What is education?	8
Formal education, culture and values	8
Technology and education	8
	8
1.2. EDUCATIONAL MOVEMENTS
Traditional movements	9
Technological models	9
The progressive movement	9
Child-centred education	9
Social-reconstructionist education
	10
1.3. THE SPANISH EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM
The right to education in the Spanish constitution and the LODE
	11
Educational rights in the Spanish constitution	11
Principles of education in the LODE	11
The extension of basic education
	11
Qualitative improvement in education	12
Structure of the new Spanish educational system
	12
1.4. EDUCATION IN BRITAIN
Primary education
	14

The comprehensive movement	14
The British national curriculum	14
1.5. EDUCATION IN THE USA
Elementary education	16
Secondary education	16

UNIT 2: LEARNING

2.1. THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE
What is learning?	18
Genetic heritage and the environment	18

2.2. THEORIES OF LEARNING
Classical and operant conditioning	19
Cognitive forms of learning	19
The development of cognitive psychology: constructivism	20
Meaningful learning	20

2.3. INTELLIGENCE AND LEARNING
Intelligence	21
Piaget=s stages of the intellectual development of the child	21

2.4. LEARNING AND MEMORY
The short term memory	23
The long term memory	23
Declarative and procedural knowledge	24
From concepts to procedures	24

2.5. SUCCESSFUL CLASSROOM LEARNING
Learning by doing	25
Learning and teaching stages	25
Cooperative learning	26

UNIT 3: INFANT EDUCATION

3.1. INTERNATIONAL OVERVIEW
Some major figures in the history of infant education	28

Nursery education in the 20 th century	29
Piaget=s contribution	29
3.2. INFANT EDUCATION IN SPAIN
Education at the early stages	31
Aims and objectives	31
Stages in infant education
	32
Methodological guidelines
	33
Preschool teachers and groups	33
Pupils integration
	33
Education authorities	34
3.3. READING TEXT: TEMPLE TERRACE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SCHOOL BROCHURE
UNIT 4: PRIMARY EDUCATION
4.1. PRIMARY EDUCATION
Age and grades	38
Organizational patterns in different countries	38
Influence of religion and private schools
	38
4.2. PRIMARY EDUCATION IN SPAIN
The 1990's reform	39
Aims and objectives of Primary Education in Spain	39
Development of basic abilities	39
Phases and areas in Primary Education	40
The Primary School curriculum	41
Teaching materials	42
Organization of this educational level	42
Promotion of students	42
Individual attention	42
Primary School teachers	42
4.3. READING TEXT: SOMMERGROVE MIDDLE SCHOOL BROCHURE	44
UNIT 5: SECONDARY EDUCATION
5.1. THE SECONDARY EDUCATION STAGE: INTERNATIONAL OVERVIEW
France	48

Germany	48
Great Britain	49
5.2. SECONDARY EDUCATION IN SPAIN
Introduction	50
Aims of comprehensive education
	50
Attention to diversity	50
Aims of Secondary Education	51
Curricular areas	52
Phases	52
Curricular diversification
	52
Models of possible organization	53
Advisory services
	53
Promotion of students	53
5.3. READING TEXT: THE CARLTON-BOLLING SCHOOL PROSPECTUS	55

UNIT 6: UNIVERSITIES

6.1. FURTHER AND HIGHER EDUCATION	58
6.2. HIGHER EDUCATION IN BRITAIN
	59
6.3. READING TEXT: ROLLE COLLEGE PROSPECTUS	61
6.4. HIGHER EDUCATION IN THE USA
	65
6.4.1. THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
Choosing a campus	66
Undergraduate Academic Programs	66
Graduate and professional education	67
Programs for students from low-income	67
Work-learn programs	67

UNIT 7: TEACHING

7.1. THE TEACHING EXPERIENCE
The teaching act	68

General objectives of teaching	68
7.2. TEACHER EDUCATION
Teacher education and development	69
Personality traits	69
Teacher education models
	69
Institutions and subject areas for ITT	72
7.3. THE TEACHING JOB
Teacher=s roles	74
The teaching performance
	74
Student participation and attention to diversity	75
Teacher talk	75
Student-teacher relationship: establishing rapport
	75
Teaching areas and subjects	75
Group and classes: streaming and tracking
	76
Preparing and planning classes	76
Motivating students	76
Evaluation
	77
GLOSSARY (technical terms and difficult words)
	78