

Large solutions for a class of nonlinear elliptic equations with gradient terms

Tommaso Leonori

In this talk we deal with some aspects of large solutions for nonlinear elliptic equations depending on the gradient. We present a result concerning some qualitative properties of the solution for a "model" equation.