Elliptic problems with singular potentials on unbounded domains.

M. Badiale

We expound some recent existence result concerning non linear elliptic problems in $\mathbb{R}^N$ with potentials that are singular on some set and vanish at infinity. Different kinds of nonlinearities will be considered. The arguments use the symmetries of the problem (radial or cylindrical).